Subject:	Allow configurable lead time for raising invoices
Description:	Lead time for invoices being raised is currently fixed at 7 days. Many customers would prefer additional notice. Being able to choose between 7, 30 or 90 days is probably good enough.

Would be nice if a number of alerts came out, say at 60, 30, 14 and 7 days. The more the better for me as I use bitfolk at work and the accounts dept can be slow and I'm busy so forget to send things over to them for payment.
